SYNOPSIS

Buster Keaton's latest comedy triumph is a broad burlesque on the triumphs of the two gun man in dramas of the frozen north.

Buster decides that he is the worst, raw-meat eating bad man north of Dawson and starts to prove it by shooting up a dance hall and terrorizing the town. He throws over his girl and makes a bid for the wife of the hero. With his trusty half breed Friday, he starts off Saturday to trail the couple into the gold fields.

They come to a clinch in a hand to hand struggle. Buster has found the woman of his desires along. He rushes into the cabin to claim possession. All is his when suddenly ---

The sound of a shot outside indicates the husband's return. He has slain the half breed servant. He enters the cabin and in the hand to hand struggle of the two men of the great outdoors Buster is rapidly getting the best of the encounter when the girl he jilted comes up and shoots him.

The picture would seem sad at this point, - but it has a surprise finish. In one of the snappiest gags of the year Buster brings "The Frozen North" into a warm finish.
